*but Venkataramanachar

24/3*

There should be only 10 Head-Masters of High Schools. As a matter of fact, however, there are eleven including Mr Sivaramakrishna Iyer. The excess is due to the fact that Mr Venkataramanachar, though appointed to one of the places of Head-Masters of High Schools is actually working as an Assistant Master, while Mr Sivaramakrishna Iyer though holding the place of an Assistant Master is doing the work of a Head-Master. The arrangement is unauthorised and involves extra cost and hence the Comptroller's objection. Mr Sivaramakrishna Iyer, however having actually been required to work as a Head-Master, he has to be given the lowest rate of pay provided for the place and an allowance of Rs 25/- per mensem, therefore, he sanctioned in addition to his sub-pro-tem pay of Rs 150/- The Inspector-General should be asked to terminate the unauthorised arrangement immediately.

(2.) The additional temporary appointment sanctioned for the Central College, in Government Order ²⁷ was one on Rs 50-- $\frac{10}{2}$ --100. The posting of an officer who was sub-pro-tem on 75-10-125 to this place was, therefore, not regular. Hence, the Comptroller's objection in this case. The pay of the additional Tutor has since been raised to Rs 75-10-125 in Government Order dated 17th February 1915 but only from 1st July 1914. Authority for admitting pay at this rate from 1st January 1914 is necessary and the enhanced rate of pay of the place, may therefore be ~~sanctioned~~ ^{sanctioned} from 1st January 1914.

(3) Mr Subbayya's transfer to the Oriental Library is open to the same objection as that of Mr Sudarsana Iyer. Mr Subbayya was sub-profer on 75-10-125 in the High School Grade and his transfer to a place on Rs 50-10-100 practically forces the Government to raise the pay of the Librarian also to Rs 75-5-125. Such arrangements are open to financial objection and the necessity for raising the pay of the Librarian of the Oriental Library should be considered independently and not because a person drawing a higher pay has been transferred to it.
